Disclaimer: Humana/ChoiceCare follows all Federal and state laws and regulations. Where more than one state is impacted by a particular issue, to allow for consistency, Humana/ChoiceCare will follow the most stringent requirement. This document is intended as a guideline. Situations may arise in which professional judgment may necessitate actions that differ from the guideline. Circumstances that justify the variation from the guideline should be noted and submitted to the appropriate business area for review and documentation. This (policy/standard) is subject to change or termination by Humana/ChoiceCare at any time. Humana has full and final discretionary authority for its interpretation and application. This (policy/standard) supersedes all other policies, standards, guidelines, procedures or information conflicting with it. If viewing a printed version of this document, please refer to the electronic copy maintained in Policy Source, Enterprise Solution Point, and National Network Operations, go/NNO, Policies and Procedures page to ensure no modifications have been made

Non-Compliance: Failure to comply with any part of Humana/ChoiceCare's policies, standards, guidelines, and procedures may result in disciplinary actions up to and including termination of employment, services or relationship with Humana/ChoiceCare. In addition, state and/or federal agencies may take action in accordance with applicable laws, rules and regulations. Any unlawful act involving Humana/ChoiceCare systems or information may result in Humana turning over any and all evidence of unlawful activity to appropriate authorities. Information on handling sanctions related to noncompliance with this policy may be found in the Expectations for Performance, and Critical Offenses policies, both of which may be found in the Policy Source site of Humana's secure intranet on Hi! (Sites/View Full Site Directory/Tools and Resources/Policy Source).
