The designations, voting powers, preferences and relative, participating, optional or other special rights, qualifications, limitations or restrictions of the above classes of stock shall be as follows:

(a) The Board of Directors is authorized to issue shares of Preferred Stock, from time to time, in such class or classes, and such series within any class, and such designations, preferences and relative, participating, optional or other special rights, and qualifications, limitations or restrictions thereof, as shall be stated and expressed in the resolution or resolutions providing for the issue of such stock adopted by the Board of Directors, and as are not stated or expressed in this Certificate of Incorporation or any amendment thereto including, but not limited to, determination of any of the following:

(1) The distinctive serial designation and the number of shares constituting a series;

(2) The dividend rate or rates, whether dividends shall be cumulative and, if so, from what date, the payment date or dates for dividends, and the participating or other special rights, if any, with respect to dividends;

(3) The voting powers, full or limited, if any, of the shares of such series;

(4) Whether the shares shall be redeemable and, if so, the price or prices at which, and the terms and conditions on which, the shares may be redeemed;

(5) The amount or amounts payable upon the shares in the event of voluntary or involuntary liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the corporation prior to any payment or distribution of the assets of the corporation to any class or classes of stock of the corporation ranking junior to the Preferred Stock;

(6) Whether the shares shall be entitled to the benefit of a sinking or retirement fund to be applied to the purchase or redemption of shares of a series and, if so entitled, the amount of such fund and the manner of its application, including the price or prices at which the shares may be redeemed or purchased through the application of such fund;

(7) Whether the shares shall be convertible into, or exchangeable for, shares of any other class or classes or of any other series of the same or any other class or classes of stock of the corporation or any other corporation, and if so convertible or exchangeable, the conversion price or prices, or the rates of exchange, and the adjustments thereof, if any, at which such conversion or exchange may be made, and any other terms and conditions of such conversion or exchange; and

(8) Any other preferences, privileges and powers, and relative, participating, optional ~~or other~~ special rights, and qualifications, limitations or restrictions of such series, as the Board of Directors may deem advisable and as shall not be inconsistent with the provisions of the Certificate of Incorporation.

(b) Subject to the preferential rights of the Preferred Stock, the holders of the Common Stock shall be entitled to receive, to the extent permitted by law, such dividends as may be declared from time to time by the Board of Directors. Except as may be otherwise required by law or this Certificate of Incorporation, each holder of Common Stock shall have one vote in respect of each share of stock held by him of record on the books of the corporation on all matter voted upon by the stockholders.

(c) Subject to the protective conditions and restrictions of any outstanding Preferred Stock, any amendment to this Certificate of Incorporation which shall increase or decrease the authorized capital stock of any class or classes may be adopted by the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of the voting stock of the corporation.

(d) No holder of Preferred or Common Stock shall have any right as such holder to purchase or subscribe for any security of the corporation now or hereafter authorized or issued. All such securities may be issued and disposed of by the Board of Directors to such persons, firms, corporations and associations for such lawful considerations, and on such terms, as the Board of Directors in its discretion may determine, without first offering the same, or any part thereof, to the holders of Preferred or Common Stock.

(e) There is hereby created a series of Preferred Stock, par value $1.00 per share out of the authorized but unissued shares of the capital stock of the corporation, to be designated "Series A Participating Preferred Stock" ("Participating Preferred Stock") to consist of 2,500,000 shares, of which the preferences and relative and other rights, and the qualifications, limitations or restrictions thereof, shall be as follows:

1. Future Increase or Decrease. Subject to paragraph 4(e) of this resolution, the number of shares of said series may at any time or from time to time be increased or decrease by the Board of Directors notwithstanding that shares of such series may be outstanding at such time of increase or decrease.

2. Dividend Rate. (a) The holders of shares of Participating Preferred Stock shall be entitled to receive, when, as and if declared by the Board of Directors out of funds legally available for the purpose, quarterly dividends payable in cash on the first day of each November, February, May and August in each year (each such date being referred to herein as a "Quarterly Dividend Payment Date"), commencing on the first Quarterly Dividend Payment Date after the first issuance of a share or fraction of a share of Participating Preferred Stock, in an amount per share (rounded to the nearest cent) equal to the greater of (a) \$20 or (b) subject to the provision for adjustment hereinafter set forth, 100 times the aggregate per share amount of all cash dividends and 100 times the aggregate per share amount (payable in kind) of all non-cash dividends or other distributions other than a dividend payable in shares of Common Stock or a subdivision of the outstanding shares of Common Stock (by reclassification or otherwise), declared on the Common Stock, par value \$.16  $\frac{2}{3}$  per share, of the corporation (the "Common Stock") since the immediately preceding Quarterly Dividend Payment Date, or, with respect to the first Quarterly Dividend Payment Date, since the first issuance of any share or fraction of a share of Participating Preferred Stock. In the event the corporation shall at any time after March 5, 1987 (the "Rights Declaration Date") (i) declare any dividend on Common Stock, payable in shares of Common Stock, (ii) subdivide the outstanding Common Stock, or (iii) combine the outstanding Common Stock into a smaller number of shares, then in each such case the amount to which holders of shares of Participating Preferred Stock were entitled immediately prior to such event under clause (b) of the preceding sentence shall be adjusted by multiplying such amount by a fraction the numerator of which is the number of shares of Common Stock outstanding immediately after such event and the denominator of which is the number of shares of Common Stock that were outstanding immediately prior to such event.

(b) On or after the first issuance of any share or fractional share of Participating Preferred Stock, no dividend on Common Stock shall be declared unless concurrently therewith a dividend or distribution is declared on the Participating Preferred Stock as provided in paragraph (a) above; and the declaration of any such dividend on the Common Stock shall be expressly conditioned upon payment or declaration of the provision for a dividend on the Participating Preferred Stock as above provided. In the event no dividend or distribution shall have been declared on the Common Stock during the period between any Quarterly Dividend Payment Date and the next subsequent Quarterly Dividend Payment Date, a dividend of $20 per share on the Participating Preferred Stock shall nevertheless be payable on such subsequent Quarterly Dividend Payment Date.

(c) Dividends shall begin to accrue and be cumulative on outstanding shares of Participating Preferred Stock from the Quarterly Dividend Payment Date next preceding the date of issue of such shares of Participating Preferred Stock, unless the date of issue of such shares is prior to the record date for the first Quarterly Dividend Payment Date, in which case dividends on such shares shall begin to accrue from the date of issue of such shares, or unless the date of issue is a Quarterly Dividend Payment Date or is a date after the record date for the determination of holders of shares of Participating Preferred Stock entitled to receive a quarterly dividend and before such Quarterly Dividend Payment Date, in either of which events such dividends shall begin to accrue and be cumulative from such Quarterly Dividend Payment Date. Accrued but unpaid dividends shall not bear interest. The Board of Directors may fix a record date for the determination of holders of shares of Participating Preferred Stock entitled to receive payment of a dividend or distribution declared thereon, which record date shall be no more than 30 days prior to the date fixed for the payment thereof.

3. Dissolution, Liquidation and Winding Up.

(a) In the event of any voluntary or involuntary dissolution, liquidation or winding up of the affairs of the corporation (hereinafter referred to as a "Liquidation"), the holders of Participating Preferred Stock shall receive at least $1,000 per share, plus an amount equal to accrued and unpaid dividends and distributions thereon, whether or not declared, to the date of such payment, provided that the holders of shares of Participating Preferred Stock shall be entitled to receive at least an aggregate amount per share, subject to the provision for adjustment hereinafter set forth, equal to 100 times the aggregate amount to be distributed per share to holders of Common Stock (the "Participating Preferred Liquidation Preference").

(b) In the event the corporation shall at any time declare or pay any dividend on the Common Stock payable in shares of Common Stock, or effect a subdivision or combination or consolidation of the outstanding Common Stock (by reclassification or otherwise than by payment of a dividend in Common Stock) into a greater or lesser number of shares of Common Stock, then in each such case the amount which holders of Participating Preferred Stock were entitled immediately prior to such event pursuant to the provision set forth in paragraph (a) above, shall be adjusted by multiplying such amount by a fraction the numerator of which is the number of shares of Common Stock outstanding immediately after such event and the denominator of which is the number of shares of Common Stock that were outstanding immediately prior to such event.

4. Voting Rights. The holders of shares of Participating Preferred Stock shall have the following voting rights:

(a) Each share of Participating Preferred Stock shall entitle the holder thereof to one (1) vote on all matters submitted to vote of the stockholders of the Company.

(b) Except as otherwise provided herein, or by law, the Certificate of Incorporation or the By-Laws, the holders of shares of Participating Preferred Stock and the holders of shares of Common Stock shall vote together as one class on all matters submitted to a vote of stockholders of the Company.

(c) If and whenever dividends on the Participating Preferred Stock shall be in arrears in an amount equal to six quarterly dividend payments, then and in such event the holders of the Participating Preferred Stock, voting separately as a class (subject to the provisions of subparagraph (d) below), shall be entitled at the next annual meeting of the stockholders or at any special meeting to elect two (2) directors. Each share of Participating Preferred Stock shall be entitled to one vote, and holders of fractional shares shall have the right to a fractional vote. Upon election, such directors shall become additional directors of the corporation and the authorized number of directors of the corporation shall thereupon be automatically increased by such number of directors. Such right of the holders of Participating Preferred Stock to elect directors may be exercised until all dividends in default on the Participating Preferred Stock shall have been paid in full, and dividends for the current dividend period declared and funds therefor set apart, and when so paid and set apart, the right of the holders of Participating Preferred Stock to elect such number of directors shall cease, the term of such directors shall thereupon terminate, and the authorized number of directors of the corporation shall thereupon return to the number of authorized directors otherwise in effect, but subject always to the same provisions for the vesting of such special voting rights in the case of any such future dividend default or defaults. The fact that dividends have been paid and set apart as required by the preceding sentence shall be evidenced by a certificate executed by the President and the chief financial officer of the corporation and delivered to the Board of Directors. The directors so elected by holders of Participating Preferred Stock shall serve until the certificate described in the preceding sentence shall have been delivered to the Board of Directors or until their respective successors shall be elected or appointed and qualify.

At any time when such special voting rights have been so vested in the holders of the Participating Preferred Stock, the Secretary of the corporation may, and upon the written request of the holders of record of 10% or more of the number of shares of the Participating Preferred Stock then outstanding addressed to such Secretary at the principal office of the corporation in the Commonwealth of Kentucky, shall, call a special meeting of the holders of the Participating Preferred Stock for the election of the directors to be elected by them as hereinabove provided, to be held in the case of such written request within forty (40) days after delivery of such request, and in either case to be held at the place and upon the notice provided by law and in the corporation's By-Laws for the holding of meetings of stockholders; provided, however, that the Secretary shall not be required to call such a special meeting (i) if any such request is received less than ninety (90) days before the date fixed for the next ensuing annual or special meeting of stockholders or (ii) if at the time any such request is received, the holders of Participating Preferred Stock are not entitled to elect such directors by reason of the occurrence of an event specified in the third sentence of subparagraph (d) below.

(d) If, at any time when the holders of Participating Preferred Stock are entitled to elect directors pursuant to the foregoing provisions of this paragraph 4, the holders of any one or more additional series of Preferred Stock are entitled to elect directors by reason of any default or event specified in the corporation's Restated Certificate of Incorporation, as amended, as in effect at the time of the certificate of designation for such series, and if the terms for such other additional series so permit, the voting rights of the two or more series then entitled to vote shall be combined (with each series having a number of votes proportional to the aggregate liquidation preference of its outstanding shares). In such case, the holders of Participating Preferred Stock and of all such other series then entitled so to vote, voting as a class, shall elect such directors. If the holders of any such other series have elected such directors prior to the happening of the default or event permitting the holders of Participating Preferred Stock to elect directors, or prior to a written request for the holding of a special meeting being received by the Secretary of the corporation from the holders of not less than 10% of the then outstanding shares of Participating Preferred Stock, then such directors so previously elected will be deemed to have been elected by and on behalf of the holders of Participating Preferred Stock as well as such other series, without prejudice to the right of the holders of Participating Preferred Stock to vote for directors if such previously elected directors shall resign, cease to serve or fail to stand for reelection while the holders of Participating Preferred Stock are entitled to vote. If the holders of any such other series are entitled to elect in excess of two (2) directors, the Participating Preferred Stock shall not participate in the election of more than two (2) such directors, and those directors whose terms first expire shall be deemed to be the directors elected by the holders of Participating Preferred Stock; provided that, if at the expiration of such terms the holders of Participating Preferred Stock are entitled to vote in the election of directors pursuant to the provisions of this paragraph 4, then the Secretary of the corporation shall call a meeting (which meeting may be the annual meeting or special meeting of stockholders referred to in subparagraph (c)) of holders of Participating Preferred Stock for the purpose of electing replacement directors (in accordance with the provisions of this paragraph 4) to be held on or prior to the time of expiration of the expiring terms referred to above.

(e) Except as otherwise set forth herein or required by law, the corporation's Restated Certificate of Incorporation or By-Laws, holders of Participating Preferred Stock shall have no special voting rights and their consent shall not be required (except to the extent they are entitled to vote with holders of Common Stock as set forth herein) for the taking of any corporate action. No consent of the holders of outstanding shares of Participating Preferred Stock at any time outstanding shall be required in order to permit the Board of Directors to: (i) increase the number of authorized shares of Participating Preferred Stock or to decrease such number to a number not below the sum of the number of shares of Participating Preferred Stock then outstanding and the number of shares with respect to which there are outstanding rights to purchase; or (ii) to issue Preferred Stock which is senior to the Participating Preferred Stock, junior to the Participating Preferred Stock or on a parity with the Participating Preferred Stock.

5. Redemption. The shares of Participating Preferred Stock shall not be redeemable.

6. Conversion Rights. The Participating Preferred Stock is not convertible into Common Stock or any other security of the corporation.

FIFTH: This corporation is to have perpetual existence.

SIXTH: The private property of the stockholders shall not be subject to the payment of corporate debts to any extent whatsoever.

SEVENTH: In the absence of fraud, no contract or transaction between the corporation and any other corporation, association or firm, and no act of the corporation, shall in any way be affected or invalidated by the fact that any of the directors or officers of the corporation is in anywise, pecuniarily or otherwise, interested in, or is a shareholder, director, officer or member of, or is otherwise connected with, such other corporation, association or firm. A director or officer of the corporation shall not be disqualified by his office from dealing or contracting with the corporation, either as vendor, purchaser or otherwise; and any director or officer of the corporation, or any firm, corporation or association of which any director or officer is a member, shareholder, director or officer or with which he is otherwise connected, may, in the absence of fraud, be a party to, or pecuniarily or otherwise interested in, any contract or transaction of the corporation; nor shall any such officer or directors, in the absence of fraud, be liable to account to the corporation for any profits realized by, from, through or as a result of any such contract or transaction.

EIGHTH: Whenever a compromise or arrangement is proposed between this corporation and its creditors or any class of them and/or between this corporation and its stockholders or any class of them, any court of equitable jurisdiction within the State of Delaware may, on the application in a summary way of this corporation or of any creditor or stockholder thereof, or on the application of any receiver or receivers appointed for this corporation under the provisions of Title 8, Section 291 of the Revised Code of 1953 of said State, or on the application of trustees in dissolution or of any receiver or receivers appointed for this corporation under the provisions of Section 279 of the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware, order a meeting of the creditors or class of creditors and/or of the stockholders or class of stockholders, of this corporation, as the case may be, to be summoned in such manner as the said court directs. If a majority in number representing three-fourths in value of the creditors or class of creditors, and/or of the stockholders or class of stockholders, of this corporation, as the case may be, agree to any compromise or arrangement and to any reorganization of this corporation as a consequence of such compromise or arrangement, the said compromise or arrangement and the said reorganization shall, if sanctioned by the Court to which the said application has been made, be binding on all the creditors or class of creditors, and/or on all the stockholders or class of stockholders, of this corporation, as the case may be, and also on this corporation.

NINTH: The following provisions are hereby adopted for the regulation and management of the business and the conduct of the affairs of the corporation and for the purposes of creating, limiting, defining and regulating the rights and powers of the directors and of the stockholders, viz.:

(a) The Board of Directors at any regular or special meeting, and the stockholders at any annual meeting, shall have the power to make, alter, amend and repeal the By-Laws of the corporation, provided, however, that By-Laws made or adopted by the Stockholders pursuant to the powers reserved to Stockholders in the Certificate of Incorporation shall not be subject to alteration or repeal by the Board of Directors, and provided further that the Board of Directors or the Stockholders shall not have authority to authorize the election of directors of the corporation by cumulative voting, or to classify the directors by terms differing in dates of expiration, unless by unanimous approval of the Stockholders of the corporation.

(b) The Board of Directors shall have the power to fix, from time to time, the amount of the accumulated profits of the corporation to be reserved as working capital or for any other lawful purpose.

(c) The Board of Directors shall have the power to determine, from time to time, whether and to what extent and at what times and places and under what conditions and regulations the accounts and books of the corporation, or any of them, shall be open to the inspection of the stockholders; and no stockholder shall have any rights to inspect any account or book or document of the corporation, except as conferred by the laws of the State of Delaware, unless and until authorized so to do by resolution of the Board of Directors or stockholders of the corporation.

(d) The Board of Directors shall have power, without the assent or vote of the stockholders, to authorize and to cause to be executed mortgage and liens upon the real and personal property of the corporation, including after-acquired property.

(e) The Board of Directors shall have power at any time or from time to time (without any action by the stockholders of the corporation) to create and issue, whether or not in connection with the issue and sale of any shares of stock or other securities of the corporation, rights, options or warrants entitling the holders thereof to purchase from the corporation any shares of its capital stock of any class or classes or of any series of any class or classes, such rights, options or warrants to be evidenced by or in such instrument or instruments as shall be approved by the Board of Directors. The terms upon which, the time or times, which may be limited or unlimited in duration, at or within which, and the price or prices at which any such shares may be purchased from the corporation upon the exercise of any such right, option, or warrant shall be such as shall be fixed and stated in the resolution or resolutions adopted by the Board of Directors providing for the creation and issue of such rights, options, or warrants and, in every case, set forth or incorporated by reference in the instrument or instruments evidencing such rights, options or warrants. In the absence of actual fraud in the transaction, the judgment of the directors as to the consideration for the issuance of such rights, options or warrants and the sufficiency thereof shall be conclusive.

(f) Shares of capital stock of the corporation of any class or classes hereby or hereafter authorized, and any rights, options or warrants entitling the holders thereof to purchase from the corporation any shares of its capital stock of any class or classes or of any series of any class or classes, may be issued by the corporation from time to time for such legal consideration as may be fixed from time to time by the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors shall have authority, as provided by statute, to determine that only a part of the consideration which shall be received by the corporation for any of the shares of its capital stock which it shall issue from time to time shall be capital.

(g) The Board of Directors shall have the power to determine from time to time the use and disposition of any surplus or net profits over and above the paid in capital stock of the corporation, and the Board of Directors in its discretion may use and apply any such surplus or accumulated profits, or any part thereof, in purchasing or acquiring any bonds or other obligations or shares of the capital stock of the corporation, to such extent, in such manner and upon such terms as the Board may deem expedient. Shares of the capital stock of the corporation so purchased or acquired may be resold unless such shares shall have been retired for the purpose of decreasing the corporation's capital stock as provided by law.

(h) Elections shall be by ballot whenever requested by any person entitled to vote, but unless so requested may be conducted in any way approved at the meeting of the stockholders at which such election is held.

(i) The stockholders shall have the power to hold their meeting within or without the State of Delaware at such places as from time to time may be designated by the By-Laws or as therein provided; and the Board of Directors shall have power to hold its meetings at such places whether within or without said State as from time to time shall be designated by resolution of the Board of Directors.

(j) The corporation shall have power, subject to the provisions of the laws of the State of Delaware and of the By-Laws of the corporation to keep the books of the corporation outside of said State at such places as may from time to time be designated by resolution of the Board of Directors.

(k) The Board of Directors may, by resolution passed by a majority of the whole Board, designate two or more of their number to constitute an Executive Committee, who, to the extent provided in said resolution or in the By-Laws of the corporation, shall have and exercise the powers of the Board of Directors in the management of the business and affairs of the corporation, including the power to authorize the seal of the corporation to be affixed to all papers which may require it.

(l) In addition to the powers and authorities hereinbefore or by statute expressly conferred upon them, the Board of Directors may exercise all such powers and do all such acts and things as may be exercised or done by the corporation; subject, nevertheless, to the provisions of the laws of the State of Delaware, of this certificate, and of the By-Laws of the corporation.

(m) The corporation shall be entitled to treat the person in whose name any share, right or option is registered as the owner thereof, for all purposes, and shall not be bound to recognize any equitable or other claim to or interest in which share, right or option on the part of any other person, whether or not the corporation shall have notice thereof, save as may be expressly provided by the laws of the State of Delaware.

(n) In addition to the powers and authorities hereinbefore or by statute expressly conferred upon them, the Board of Directors may exercise all such powers and do all such acts and things as may be exercised or done by the corporation; subject, nevertheless, to the provisions of the laws of the State of Delaware, of this Certificate and of the By-Laws of the corporation.

TENTH: A director of the corporation shall not be personally liable to the corporation or its stockholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director except for liability (i) for any breach of the director's duty of loyalty to the corporation or its stockholders, (ii) for acts or omissions not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law, (iii) under Section 174 of the Delaware General Corporation Law, or (iv) for any transaction from which the director derived an improper personal benefit.

ELEVENTH: Except as otherwise set forth elsewhere in this Tenth Article the affirmative vote of three-fourths of the outstanding shares entitled to vote thereon shall be required: (a) for the adoption of any agreement for the merger or consolidation of the corporation with or into a related company or an affiliate of a related company, (b) to authorize the sale or lease of all or substantially all of the assets of the corporation to a related company or affiliate of a related company, or (c) to authorize the sale or lease to the corporation or any subsidiary of any assets of a related company or an affiliate of a related company in exchange for equity securities of the corporation.

A determination of the Board of Directors of the corporation, based on information known to the Board of Directors and made in good faith, shall be conclusive as to whether a company, person or other entity is a related company, an affiliate or an associate and whether a related person or affiliate thereof beneficially owns more than 5% of any class of equity securities of the corporation.

The provisions of this Tenth Article shall not be applicable to any (i) merger or consolidation of the corporation with or into a related person or affiliate thereof, (ii) sale or lease of all or any substantial part of the assets of the corporation to a related person or affiliate thereof, or (iii) sale or lease of any assets of a related person or affiliate thereof to the corporation or any subsidiary in exchange for equity securities of the corporation, if the Board of Directors of the corporation shall have approved such a transaction with such related company or affiliate prior to the time that such related company or affiliate became a holder of more than 5% of any class of equity securities of the corporation.

The provisions of this Tenth Article shall be in addition to the requirements of the Delaware Corporation Law and shall not be amended or repealed without the affirmative vote of three-fourths of the outstanding stock of the corporation entitled to vote thereon.

For purposes of this Tenth Article a "related company" in respect of a given transaction is any company, person or other entity which by itself or together with its affiliates and associates is the beneficial owner, directly or indirectly, of more than 5% of any class of equity securities of the corporation as of the record date for the determination of stockholders entitled to vote on such transactions. An "affiliate" of a related company is any company, person or other entity which, directly or indirectly, through one or more intermediaries, controls or is controlled by, or is under common control with, the related company. An "associate" of a related company is any officer, director or beneficial owner, directly or indirectly, of 5% or

ARTICLE I

Meetings of Stockholders

Section 1.1 Annual Meetings. The annual meeting of the stockholders for the election of directors and for the transaction of such other business as properly may come before such meeting shall be held on such date, and at such time and place within or without the State of Delaware as may be designated by the Board of Directors.

Section 1.2 Special Meetings. Special meetings of the stockholders for any purpose or purposes, unless otherwise prescribed by law, may be called at any time by the Board of Directors, the Chairman of the Board, the Chief Executive Officer, or the President, to be held on such date, and at such time and place within or without the State of Delaware as the Board of Directors, the Chairman of the Board, the Chief Executive Officer or the President, whichever has called the meeting, shall direct. A special meeting of the stockholders shall be called by the Chairman of the Board, the Chief Executive Officer, or the President whenever stockholders owning one-fourth of the shares of the Corporation then issued and outstanding and entitled to vote on matters to be submitted to stockholders of the Corporation shall make application therefor in writing. Any such written request shall state a proper purpose or purposes of the meeting and shall be delivered to the Chairman of the Board, the Chief Executive Officer or the President.

Section 1.3 Notice of Meeting. Written notice of every meeting of the stockholders shall be given by, or at the direction of, the person authorized to call the meeting, to each stockholder of record entitled to vote at the meeting, at his address appearing on the books of the Corporation or supplied by him to the Corporation for the purpose of notice. The notice of every meeting of the stockholders shall specify the place, day and hour of the meeting and, in the case of a special meeting, the matter or matters to be acted upon at such meeting. Only the matter or matters specified in the notice of a special meeting shall be acted upon thereat. All notices of meetings of the stockholders shall be mailed at least ten days before the time of the meeting.

The notice of every meeting of the stockholders may be accompanied by a form of proxy approved by the Board of Directors in favor of such person or persons as the Board of Directors may select.

Section 1.4 Quorum. Except where otherwise provided by law or these By-laws, the presence at any meeting, in person or by proxy, of the holders of record of a majority of the shares then issued and outstanding and entitled to vote shall be necessary and sufficient to constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.

Section 1.5 Adjournments. In the absence of a quorum, a majority in interest of the stockholders entitled to vote, present in person or by proxy, or, if no stockholder entitled to vote is present in person or by proxy, any officer entitled to preside or act as secretary of such meeting, may adjourn the meeting from time to time until a quorum shall be present. At any such adjourned meeting at which a quorum shall be present, any business may be transacted which might have been transacted at the meeting as originally called.

Section 1.6 Voting. A nominee for director shall be elected to the Board of Directors if the votes cast for such nominee's election exceed the votes cast against such nominee's election; provided, however, that directors shall be elected by a plurality of the votes cast at meeting of stockholders for which (i) the Secretary of the Corporation receives a notice that a stockholder has nominated a person for election to the Board of Directors in compliance with the advance notice requirements for stockholder nominees for director set forth in Article I, Section 1.10 of these By-laws and (ii) such nomination has not been withdrawn by such stockholder on or before the tenth day before the Corporation first mails its notice of meeting for such meeting to the stockholders. If directors are to be elected by a plurality of the votes cast, stockholders shall not be permitted to vote against a nominee. All other questions submitted to stockholders shall be determined by a majority of the votes cast affirmatively or negatively on such question, except where otherwise provided by law, the Certificate of Incorporation of the Corporation or the By-laws. All voting shall be on a non-cumulative basis.

Section 1.7 Proxies. Any stockholder entitled to vote may vote by proxy, provided that the instrument authorizing such proxy to act shall have been executed in writing (which shall include telegraphing or cabling) by the stockholder or by his duly authorized attorney-in-fact and filed with the Secretary of the Corporation.

Section 1.8 Judges of Election. The Board of Directors may appoint judges of election to serve at any election of directors and at balloting on any other matter that may properly come before a meeting of stockholders. If no such appointment shall be made, or if any of the judges so appointed shall fail to attend, or refuse to or be unable to serve, then such appointment may be made by the presiding officer at the meeting.

Section 1.9 Stockholder Proposals. At an annual meeting of stockholders only such business shall be conducted, and only such proposals shall be acted upon, as shall have been properly brought before the annual meeting of stockholders (a) by, or at the direction of, the Board of Directors or (b) by a stockholder of the Corporation who complies with the procedures set forth in this Section 1.9. For business or a proposal to be properly brought before an annual meeting of stockholders by a stockholder, the stockholder must have given timely notice thereof in writing to the Secretary of the Corporation. To be timely, a stockholder's notice must be delivered to or mailed and received at the principal executive offices of the Corporation not less than 60 days nor more than 90 days prior to the scheduled date of the annual meeting, regardless of any postponement, deferral or adjournment of that meeting to a later date; provided, however, that if less than 70 days' notice or prior public disclosure of the date of the annual meeting is given or made to stockholders, notice by the stockholder to be timely must be so delivered or received not later than the close of business on the 10th day following the earlier of (i) the day on which such notice of the date of the meeting was mailed or (ii) the day on which such public disclosure was made.

A stockholder's notice to the Secretary shall set forth as to each matter the stockholder proposes to bring before an annual meeting of stockholders (i) a description, in 500 words or less, of the business desired to be brought before the annual meeting and the reasons for conducting such business at the annual meeting, (ii) the name and address, as they appear on the Corporation's books, of the stockholders known by such stockholder to be supporting such proposal, (iii) the class and number of shares of the Corporation which are beneficially owned by such stockholder on the date of such stockholder's notice and by any other stockholders known by such stockholder to be supporting such proposal on the date of such stockholder's notice, (iv) a description, in 500 words or less, of any interest of the stockholder in such proposal, and (v) a representation that the stockholder is a holder of record of stock of the Corporation and intends to appear in person or by proxy at the meeting to present the proposal specified in the notice. Notwithstanding anything in these By-Laws to the contrary, no business shall be conducted at a meeting of stockholders except in accordance with the procedures set forth in this Section 1.9.

The chairman of the meeting shall, if the facts warrant, determine and declare to the meeting that the business was not properly brought before the meeting in accordance with the procedures prescribed by this Section 1.9, and if he should so determine, he shall so declare to the meeting and any such business not properly brought before the meeting shall not be transacted. Notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing in this Section 1.9 shall be interpreted or construed to require the inclusion of information about any such proposal in any proxy statement distributed by, at the direction of, or on behalf of, the Board of Directors.

The provisions of this Section 1.9 shall be applicable to annual meetings of stockholders after the 1993 annual meeting of stockholders.

Section 1.10 Stockholder Nominations. Subject to the rights, if any, of the holders of any series of Preferred Stock then outstanding, only persons nominated in accordance with the procedures set forth in this Section 1.10 or pursuant to Section 2.6 below shall be eligible for election as directors. Nominations of persons for election to the Board may be made at an annual meeting of stockholders or special meeting of stockholders called by the Board of Directors for the purpose of electing directors (i) by or at the direction of the Board (each, a "Board Nominee") or (ii) by any stockholder of the Corporation entitled to vote for the election of directors at such meeting who complies with the notice procedures set forth in this Section 1.10 or pursuant to Section 2.6 below. Such nominations, other than those for Board Nominees or pursuant to Section 2.6 below, shall be made pursuant to timely notice in writing to the Secretary of the Corporation. To be timely, a stockholder's notice must be delivered to or mailed and received at the principal executive offices of the Corporation not less than 60 days nor more than 90 days prior to the scheduled date of the meeting, regardless of any postponement, deferral or adjournment of that meeting to a later date; provided, however, that if less than 70 days' notice or prior public disclosure of the date of the meeting is given or made to stockholders, notice by the stockholder to be timely must be so delivered or received not later than the close of business on the 10th day following the earlier of (i) the day on which such notice of the date of the meeting was mailed or (ii) the day on which such public disclosure was made.

A stockholder's notice to the Secretary shall set forth (i) as to each person whom the stockholder proposes to nominate for election or reelection as a director (a) the name, age, business address and residence address of such person, (b) the principal occupation or employment of such person, (c) the class and number of shares of the Corporation which are beneficially owned by such person on the date of such stockholder's notice, (d) a statement whether such person, if elected, intends to tender, promptly following such person's election, an irrevocable resignation effective upon such person's failure to receive the required vote for re-election at any future meeting at which such person would face re-election and upon acceptance of such resignation by the Board of Directors, in accordance with the Corporation's Board Practice on Director Elections which is part of the Corporate Governance Guidelines and (e) any other information relating to such person that is required to be disclosed in solicitations of proxies for election of directors, or is otherwise required, in each case pursuant to Regulation 14A under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, or any successor statute thereto (the "Exchange Act") (including without limitation such person's written consent to being named in the proxy statement as a nominee and to serving as a director if elected); (ii) as to the stockholder giving the notice (a) the name and address, as they appear on the Corporation's books, of such stockholder and any other stockholders known by such stockholder to be supporting such nominee(s), (b) the class and number of shares of the Corporation which are beneficially owned by such stockholder on the date of such stockholder's notice and by any other stockholders known by such stockholder to be supporting such nominee(s) on the date of such stockholder's notice, (c) a representation that the stockholder is a holder of record of stock of the Corporation entitled to vote at such meeting and intends to appear in person or by proxy at the meeting to nominate the person or persons specified in the notice; and (iii) a description of all arrangements or understandings between the stockholder and each nominee and other person or persons (naming such person or persons) pursuant to which the nomination or nominations are to be made by the stockholder.

No person shall be eligible for election as a director of the Corporation unless nominated in accordance with the procedures set forth in this Section 1.10. The chairman of the meeting shall, if the facts warrant, determine and declare to the meeting that a nomination was not made in accordance with the procedures prescribed by this Section 1.10, and if he should so determine, he shall so declare to the meeting and the defective nomination shall be disregarded.

The provisions of this Section 1.10 shall be applicable to meetings of stockholders after the 1993 annual meeting of stockholders.

Section 1.11 Record Date for Written Consents. In order that the Corporation may determine the stockholders entitled to consent to corporate action in writing without a meeting, the Board of Directors may fix a record date, which record date shall not precede the date upon which the resolution fixing the record date is adopted by the Board of Directors, and which date shall not be more than ten (10) days after the date upon which the resolution fixing the record date is adopted by the Board of Directors. Any stockholder of record seeking to have the stockholders authorize or take corporate action by written consent shall, by written notice to the Secretary, request the Board of Directors to fix a record date. The Board of Directors shall promptly, but in all events within ten (10) days after the date on which such a request is received, adopt a resolution fixing the record date. If no record date has been fixed by the Board of Directors within ten (10) days of the date on which such a request is received, the record date for determining stockholders entitled to consent to corporate action in writing without a meeting, when no prior action by the Board of Directors is required by applicable law, shall be the first date on which a signed written consent setting forth the action taken or proposed to be taken is delivered to the Corporation by delivery to its registered office in the State of Delaware, its principal place of business, or any officer or agent of the Corporation having custody of the book in which proceedings of stockholders meetings are recorded, to the attention of the Secretary of the Corporation. Delivery shall be by hand or by certified or registered mail, return receipt requested. If no record date has been fixed by the Board of Directors and prior action by the Board of Directors is required by applicable law, the record date for determining stockholders entitled to consent to corporate action in writing without a meeting shall be at the close of business on the date on which the Board of Directors adopts the resolution taking such prior action.

ARTICLE II Board of Directors

Section 2.1 Number. The number of directors which shall constitute the whole Board of Directors shall be fixed from time to time by resolution of the Board of Directors or stockholders (any such resolution of either the Board of Directors or stockholders being subject to any later resolution of either of them) but in no event shall such number be less than three or more than fifteen.

Section 2.2 Election and Term of Office. Directors shall be elected at the annual meeting of the stockholders. Each director (whether elected at an annual meeting or to fill a vacancy or otherwise) shall continue in office until his successor shall have been elected or until his earlier death, resignation or removal in the manner hereinafter provided.

Section 2.3 The Chairman of the Board. The Chairman of the Board shall be elected from among the members of the Board of Directors. If present, he shall preside at all meetings of stockholders and the Board of Directors and he shall see that all orders and resolutions of the Board of Directors are carried into effect. He may sign, with any officer thereunto duly authorized, certificates of stock of the Corporation the issuance of which shall have been duly authorized (the signature to which may be a facsimile signature). He shall also perform such other duties as are given to him by these By-laws or as from time to time may be assigned to him by the Board of Directors.

Section 2.4 Vice Chairman of the Board. The Vice Chairman of the Board shall, in the absence of the Chairman of the Board, preside at all meetings of stockholders and the Board of Directors. He shall perform such other duties as may be assigned to him by these By-laws, the Board of Directors or the Chairman of the Board.

Section 2.5 Vacancies and Additional Directorships. If any vacancy shall occur among the directors by reason of death, resignation, or removal, or as the result of an increase in the number of directorships, the directors then in office shall continue to act and may fill any such vacancy by a vote of the directors then in office (including any directors who have submitted their resignation but whose resignation has not become effective), though less than a quorum. If the whole board shall submit their resignations, said board, prior to the effectiveness of their resignations, may elect their successors who will take office upon such resignations.

Section 2.6 Proxy Access for Director Nominations. Whenever the Board solicits proxies with respect to an annual meeting of stockholders, the Corporation shall include in its proxy statement for such annual meeting, in addition to the Board Nominees, the name, together with the Required Information (defined below), of any person or persons, as applicable, nominated for election as a director (each such person, a "Stockholder Nominee") pursuant to a timely notice that satisfies Section 2.6 of this Article II delivered by one or more stockholders who satisfy, or are acting on behalf of persons who satisfy, the ownership and other requirements of Section 2.6 of this Article II (such stockholder or stockholders, and any person on whose behalf they are acting, the "Eligible Stockholder"), and who expressly elects at the time of providing the notice required by this Article II (the "Notice of Proxy Access Nomination") to have its nominee or nominees included in the Corporation's proxy materials pursuant to this Article II Section 2.6.

(a) To be timely, a Notice of Proxy Access Nomination must be delivered to, or mailed and received at the principal executive offices of the Corporation not less than 120 days nor more than 150 days prior to the anniversary of the date the Corporation commenced mailing of its proxy materials in connection with the most recent annual meeting of stockholders (the last day on which a Notice of Proxy Access Nomination may be delivered, the "Final Proxy Access Nomination Date"). In no event shall the public announcement of an adjournment or postponement of an annual meeting commence a new time period (or extend any time period) for the giving of a Notice of Proxy Access Nomination. In addition to other requirements set forth in this Section 2.6, the Notice of Proxy Access Nomination must include the name and address of the Eligible Stockholder (including each stockholder and/or beneficial owner whose stock ownership is counted for the purposes of qualifying as an Eligible Stockholder).

(b) For purposes of this Article II Section 2.6, the "Required Information" that the Corporation will include in its proxy statement is (i) the information concerning the Stockholder Nominee and the Eligible Stockholder that, as determined by the Corporation, is required to be disclosed in a proxy statement filed pursuant to the proxy rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC"), and (ii) if the Eligible Stockholder so elects, a Statement (defined below).

(c) The maximum number of Stockholder Nominees that must be included in the Corporation's proxy materials with respect to an annual meeting of stockholders pursuant to this Section 2.6 shall not exceed the larger of two (2) or 20% of the number of directors serving on the Board of Directors as of the Final Proxy Access Nomination Date, or if such amount is not a whole number, the closest whole number below 20%. The following persons shall be considered Stockholder Nominees for purposes of determining when the maximum number of Stockholder Nominees provided for in this Section 2.6 has been reached: (1) any Stockholder Nominee that was submitted by an Eligible Stockholder for inclusion in the Corporation's proxy materials pursuant to this Article II Section 2.6 whom the Board of Directors decides to nominate as a Board Nominee, (2) any Stockholder Nominee whose nomination is subsequently withdrawn; (3) any person(s) nominated pursuant to Section 1.10 of Article I of these By-Laws for election at the applicable annual meeting; and (4) any director who had been a Stockholder Nominee or a nominee of a stockholder pursuant to Article II Section 2.6 at any of the preceding two annual meetings and whose reelection at the upcoming annual meeting is being recommended by the Board of Directors. In the event that the number of Stockholder Nominees submitted by Eligible Stockholders pursuant to this Article II Section 2.6 exceeds (x) this maximum number, less (y) the number of persons considered Stockholder Nominees as described in clauses (1), (2), (3) and (4) above ((x) less (y), the "Permitted Number"), each Eligible Stockholder shall select one Stockholder Nominee for inclusion in the Corporation's proxy materials until the Permitted Number is reached, going in the order of the amount (largest to smallest) of shares of the Corporation's common stock owned by each Eligible Stockholder as disclosed in the Notice of Proxy Access Nomination submitted to the Corporation. If the Permitted Number is not reached after each Eligible Stockholder has selected one Stockholder Nominee, this selection process shall continue as many times as necessary, following the same order each time, until the Permitted Number is reached.

(d) An Eligible Stockholder must have owned (as defined below) 3% or more of the Corporation's outstanding common stock continuously for at least three years (the "Required Shares") as of both the date the written notice of the nomination is delivered to or mailed and received by the Corporation in accordance with this Section 2.6 of Article II and the record date for determining stockholders entitled to vote at the upcoming annual meeting and must continue to own the Required Shares until such upcoming annual meeting of stockholders. For purposes of satisfying the foregoing ownership requirement under this Section 2.6, (i) the shares of common stock owned by one or more stockholders, or by the person or persons who own shares of the Corporation's common stock and on whose behalf any stockholder is acting, may be aggregated, provided that the number of stockholders and other persons whose ownership of shares is aggregated for such purpose shall not exceed twenty, and (ii) two or more funds that are (A) under common management and investment control, (B) under common management and funded primarily by the same employer, or (C) a "group of investment companies," as such term is defined in Section 12(d)(1)(G)(ii) of the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended, shall be treated as one stockholder or person for this purpose.

(e) Within the time period specified in Article II Section 2.6 for providing notice of a nomination, an Eligible Stockholder must provide the following information in writing to the Secretary (in addition to the information required to be provided by Article I Section 1.10): (i) one or more written statements from the record holder of the shares (and from each intermediary through which the shares are or have been held during the requisite three-year holding period) verifying that, as of a date within seven (7) calendar days prior to the date the written notice of the nomination is delivered to or mailed and received by the Corporation, the Eligible Stockholder owns, and has owned continuously for the preceding three years, the Required Shares, and the Eligible Stockholder's agreement to provide, within five (5) business days after the record date for the upcoming annual meeting, written statements from the record holder and intermediaries verifying the Eligible Stockholder's continuous ownership of the Required Shares through the record date, (ii) the written consent of each Stockholder Nominee to be named in the proxy statement as a nominee and to serving as a director if elected, (iii) a copy of the Schedule 14N that has been filed with the SEC as required by Rule 14a-18 under the Exchange Act, as may be amended, (iv) a representation that the Eligible Stockholder (including each member of any group of stockholders or other persons that together is an Eligible Stockholder hereunder) (A) acquired the Required Shares in the ordinary course of business and not with the intent to change or influence control at the Corporation, and does not presently have such intent, (B) has not nominated and will not nominate for election to the Board of Directors at the meeting any person other than the Stockholder Nominee(s) being nominated pursuant to this Article II Section 2.6, (C) has not engaged and will not engage in, and has not and will not be, a "participant" in another person's "solicitation" within the meaning of Rule 14a-1(l) under the Exchange Act in support of the election of any individual as a director at the meeting other than its Stockholder Nominee or a Board Nominee, (D) will not distribute to any stockholder any form of proxy for the meeting other than the form distributed by the Corporation, and (E) will provide facts, statements and other information in all communications with the Corporation and its stockholders that are or will be true and correct in all material respects and do not and will not omit to state a material fact necessary in order to make the statements made, in light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading, and (v) an undertaking that the Eligible Stockholder (including each member of any group of stockholders or other persons that together is an Eligible Stockholder hereunder) agrees to (A) assume all liability stemming from any legal or regulatory violation arising out of the Eligible Stockholder's communications with the Corporation's stockholders or out of the information that the Eligible Stockholder provided to the Corporation, (B) indemnify and hold harmless the Corporation and each of its directors, officers and employees individually against any liability, loss or damages in connection with any threatened or pending action, suit or proceeding, whether legal, administrative or investigative, against the Corporation or any of its directors, officers or employees arising out of any nomination submitted by the Eligible Stockholder pursuant to this Article II Section 2.6, (C) file with the SEC all soliciting materials as required under Section 2.6(k) of this Article II, and (D) comply with all other applicable laws, rules, regulations and listing standards with respect to any solicitation in connection with the upcoming annual meeting. The inspector of elections shall not give effect to the Eligible Stockholder's votes with respect to the election of directors if the Eligible Stockholder does not comply with each of the representations in clause (iv) above.

(f) For purposes of this Article II Section 2.6, an Eligible Stockholder shall be deemed to "own" only those outstanding shares of the Corporation's common stock as to which the stockholder possesses both (i) the full voting and investment rights pertaining to the shares and (ii) the full economic interest in (including the opportunity for profit and risk of loss on) such shares; provided that the number of shares calculated in accordance with clauses (i) and (ii) shall not include any shares (x) sold by such Eligible Stockholder or any of its affiliates in any transaction that has not been settled or closed, (y) borrowed by such Eligible Stockholder or any of its affiliates for any purposes or purchased by such Eligible Stockholder or any of its affiliates pursuant to an agreement to resell or (z) subject to any option, warrant, forward contract, swap, contract of sale, other derivative or similar agreement entered into by such stockholder or any of its affiliates, whether any such instrument or agreement is to be settled with shares or with cash based on the notional amount or value of outstanding shares of the Corporation's common stock, in any such case which instrument or agreement has, or is intended to have, the purpose or effect of (1) reducing in any manner, to any extent or at any time in the future, such stockholder's or affiliates' full right to vote or direct the voting of any such shares, and/or (2) hedging, offsetting or altering to any degree gain or loss arising from the full economic ownership of such shares by such stockholder or affiliate. An Eligible Stockholder shall "own" shares held in the name of a nominee or other intermediary so long as the stockholder retains the right to instruct how the shares are voted with respect to the election of directors and possesses the full economic interest in the shares. A stockholder's ownership of shares shall be deemed to continue during any period in which the stockholder has delegated any voting power by means of a proxy, power of attorney or other instrument or arrangement that is revocable at any time by the stockholder. A person's ownership of shares shall be deemed to continue during any period in which (i) the person has loaned such shares, provided that the person has the power to recall such loaned shares on five business days' notice; or (ii) the person has delegated any voting power by means of a proxy, power of attorney or other instrument or arrangement that is revocable at any time by the person. Whether outstanding shares of the Corporation's common stock are "owned" for these purposes shall be determined by the Board of Directors, which determination shall be conclusive and binding on the Corporation and its stockholders. For purposes of this Article II Section 2.6, the term "affiliate" shall have the meaning ascribed thereto in the regulations promulgated under the Exchange Act.

(g) The Eligible Stockholder may provide to the Secretary, within the time period specified in this Section 2.6 of Article II for providing notice of a nomination, a written statement for inclusion in the Corporation's proxy statement for the meeting, not to exceed 500 words, in support of the candidacy of any Stockholder Nominee submitted by such Eligible Stockholder (the "Statement"). Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Article II, the Corporation may omit from its proxy materials any information or Statement that it believes would violate any applicable law, rule, regulation or listing standard.

(h) Within the time period specified in Article II Section 2.6 of these By-Laws for providing a Notice of Proxy Access Nomination, a Stockholder Nominee must deliver to the Secretary a written representation and agreement that such person (i) is not and will not become a party to any agreement, arrangement or understanding with, and has not given any commitment or assurance to, any person or entity as to how such person, if elected as a director, will act or vote on any issue or question that has not been disclosed to the Corporation, (ii) is not and will not become a party to any agreement, arrangement or understanding with any person or entity other than the Corporation with respect to any direct or indirect compensation, reimbursement or indemnification in connection with service or action as a director that has not been disclosed to the Corporation, and (iii) will comply with all of the Corporation's corporate governance, conflict of interest, confidentiality and stock ownership and trading policies and guidelines, and any other Corporation policies and guidelines applicable to directors. At the request of the Corporation, the Stockholder Nominee must submit all completed and signed questionnaires required of Corporation directors and officers. The Corporation may request such additional information as necessary to permit the Board of Directors to determine if each Stockholder Nominee is independent under applicable listing standards, any applicable rules of the SEC and any publicly disclosed standards used by the Board of Directors in determining and disclosing the independence of the Corporation's directors (the "Applicable Independence Standards"). If the Board of Directors determines that the Stockholder Nominee is not independent under any of these standards, the Stockholder Nominee will not be eligible for inclusion in the Corporation's proxy materials.

(i) The Corporation shall not be required to include, pursuant to this Article II Section 2.6, a Stockholder Nominee in its proxy materials (i) for any meeting for which the Secretary receives a notice that the Eligible Stockholder or any other stockholder has nominated a Stockholder Nominee for election to the Board of Directors pursuant to the requirements of Article I Section 1.10 and does not expressly elect at the time of providing the notice to have its nominee included in the Corporation's proxy materials pursuant to this Article II Section 2.6, (ii) if the Eligible Stockholder who has nominated such Stockholder Nominee has engaged in or is currently engaged in, or has been or is a "participant" in another person's, "solicitation" within the meaning of Rule 14a-1(l) under the Exchange Act in support of the election of any individual as a director at the meeting other than its Stockholder Nominee(s) or a Board Nominee, (iii) if the Stockholder Nominee is or becomes a party to any compensatory, payment or other financial agreement, arrangement or understanding with any person or entity other than the Corporation, or is receiving or will receive any such compensation or other payment from any person or entity other than the Corporation, in each case in connection with service as a director of the Corporation, that has not been disclosed to the Corporation, (iv) who is not independent under the Applicable Independence Standards, as determined by the Board of Directors, (v) whose election as a member of the Board of Directors would cause the Corporation to be in violation of these By-Laws, the Corporation's Certificate of Incorporation, the listing standards of the principal exchange upon which the Corporation's common stock is traded, or any applicable state or federal law, rule or regulation, (vi) who is or has been, within the past three years, an officer or director of a competitor, as defined in Section 8 of the Clayton Antitrust Act of 1914, (vii) whose then-current or within the preceding ten (10) years' business or personal interests place such Stockholder Nominee in a conflict of interest with the Corporation or any of its subsidiaries that would cause such Stockholder Nominee to violate any fiduciary duties of directors established pursuant to the Delaware General Corporations Law, including but not limited to, the duty of loyalty and duty of care, as determined by the Board of Directors; (viii) who is a named subject of a pending criminal proceeding (excluding traffic violations and other minor offenses) or has been convicted in such a criminal proceeding within the past ten years, (ix) who is subject to any order of the type specified in Rule 506(d) of Regulation D promulgated under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, (x) if such Stockholder Nominee or the applicable Eligible Stockholder shall have provided information to the Corporation in respect to such nomination that was untrue in any material respect or omitted to state a material fact necessary in order to make the statement made, in light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading, as determined by the Board of Directors, or (xi) if the Eligible Stockholder or applicable Stockholder Nominee otherwise contravenes any of the agreements or representations made by such Eligible Stockholder or Stockholder Nominee or fails to comply with its obligations pursuant to this Article II.

(j) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth herein, the Board of Directors or the person presiding at the meeting shall declare a nomination by an Eligible Stockholder to be invalid, and such nomination shall be disregarded notwithstanding that proxies in respect of such vote may have been received by the Corporation, if (i) the Stockholder Nominee(s) and/or the applicable Eligible Stockholder shall have breached its or their obligations, agreements or representations under this Article II, as determined by the Board of Directors or the person presiding at the meeting, or (ii) the Eligible Stockholder (or a qualified representative thereof) does not appear at the meeting to present any nomination pursuant to this Article II Section 2.6.

(k) The Eligible Stockholder (including any person who owns shares that constitute part of the Eligible Stockholder's ownership for purposes of satisfying Section 2.6(f) of this Article II) shall file with the SEC any solicitation materials relating to the meeting at which the Stockholder Nominee will be nominated, regardless of whether any such filing is required under Regulation 14A of the Exchange Act or whether any exemption from filing is available for such solicitation under Regulation 14A of the Exchange Act.

(l) No person may be a member of more than one group of persons constituting an Eligible Stockholder under this Article II Section 2.6.

(m) Any Stockholder Nominee who is included in the Corporation's proxy materials for a particular meeting of stockholders but either (i) withdraws from or becomes ineligible or unavailable for election at the meeting, or (ii) does not receive at least 20% of the votes cast in favor of the Stockholder Nominee's election, shall be ineligible to be a Stockholder Nominee pursuant to this Article II Section 2.6 for the next two annual meetings of stockholders following the meeting for which the Stockholder Nominee has been nominated for election.

Section 2.7 Meetings. A meeting of the Board of Directors shall be held for organization, for the election of officers and for the transaction of such other business as may properly come before the meeting, within thirty days after each annual election of directors. The Board of Directors by resolution may provide for the holding of regular meetings and may fix the time and places at which such meetings shall be held. Notice of regular meetings shall not be required to be given, provided that whenever the time or place of regular meetings shall be fixed or changed, notice of such action shall be mailed promptly to each director who shall not have been present at the meeting at which such action was taken, addressed to him at his residence or usual place of business. Special meetings of the Board of Directors may be called by the Chairman of the Board, the Chief Executive Officer, the President, or any three directors. Except as otherwise required by statute, notice of each special meeting shall be mailed to each director addressed to him at his residence or usual place of business, or shall be sent to him at such place by telegram, radio or cable, or telephoned or delivered to him personally, not later than two days before the day on which the meeting is to be held. Such notice shall state the time and place of such meeting but, unless otherwise required by statute, the Certificate of Incorporation of the Corporation or these By-laws, need not state the purposes thereof. Notice of any meeting need not be given to any director who shall attend such meeting in person or who shall waive notice thereof, before or after such meeting in writing or by telegram, radio or cable. Meetings of the directors may be held by the directors participating in the same by means of a conference telephone or similar communications equipment by means of which all persons participating in the meeting can hear each other, and participation in a meeting in such manner shall constitute presence in person by all persons so participating. Meetings may also be held in such other manner authorized or permitted by Delaware law. Whenever the laws of the State of Delaware authorize or permit directors to act other than at a meeting, including, but not limited to, acting through unanimous or other written consents, then such actions shall be as effective as if taken by the directors at a meeting.

Section 2.8 Quorum. A majority of the total number of members of the Board of Directors as constituted from time to time shall be necessary and sufficient to constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. In the absence of a quorum, a majority of those present at the time and place of any meeting may adjourn the meeting from time to time until a quorum shall be present and the meeting may be held as adjourned without further notice. Except as otherwise provided by law, the Certificate of Incorporation or by these By-Laws, a majority of the Directors present at any meeting at which a quorum is present may decide any question properly brought before such meeting.

Section 2.9 Resignation of Directors. Any director may resign at any time by giving written notice of such resignation to the Board of Directors, the Chairman of the Board or the Chief Executive Officer or the President. Any such resignation shall take effect at the time, or upon the happening of an event, specified therein or, if no time is specified, upon receipt thereof by the Board of Directors or one of the above named officers; and, unless specified therein, the acceptance of such resignation shall not be necessary to make it effective.

Section 2.10 Removal of Directors. At any special meeting of the stockholders, duly called as provided in these By-laws, any director or directors may, by the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of all the shares of stock outstanding and entitled to vote for the election of directors, be removed from office, either with or without cause. At such meeting a successor or successors may be elected, or if any such vacancy is not so filled, it may be filled by the directors as provided in Section 2.5.

Section 2.11 Compensation of Directors. Directors shall receive such reasonable compensation for their services as such, whether in the form of salary or a fixed fee for attendance at meetings, with expenses, if any, as the Board of Directors may from time to time determine. Nothing herein contained shall be construed to preclude any director from serving the Corporation in any other capacity and receiving compensation therefor.

ARTICLE III Committees of the Board

Section 3.1 Executive Committee. There shall be an Executive Committee of the Corporation, consisting of not less than three nor more than seven members of the Board of Directors, including the Chairman of the Board, as may be determined from time to time by the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors, by resolution adopted by a majority of the whole Board, shall elect the members of the Executive Committee and shall fill any vacancy in the Executive Committee. The members of the Executive Committee shall hold office until the first meeting of the Board of Directors after the next succeeding annual meeting of the stockholders and until their successors are elected.

All action of the Executive Committee shall be reported to the Board of Directors, and, when the Board of Directors of the Corporation is not in session, the Executive Committee shall have and exercise the authority of the Board of Directors in the management of the business, affairs and property of the Corporation.

Section 3.2 Other Committees. The Board of Directors may from time to time appoint such further standing or special committees as it may deem for the best interest of the Corporation, but no such committee shall have any powers, except such as are expressly conferred upon it by the Board of Directors. Each committee referred to in this Article III shall act only as a committee and the individual members shall have no power as such.

Section 3.3 Meetings, Notices and Records. Each committee may provide for the holding of regular meetings, with or without notice, and may fix the time and place at which such meetings shall be held. Special meetings of each committee shall be held upon call by or at the direction of its chairman or, if there be no chairman, by or at the direction of any two of its members, at the time and place specified in the respective notices or waivers of notice thereof. Notice of each special meeting of a committee shall be mailed to each member of such committee, addressed to him at his residence or usual place of business, at least two days before the day on which the meeting is to be held, or shall be sent by telegram, radio or cable, addressed to him at such place, or telephoned or delivered to him personally, not later than the day before the day on which the meeting is to be held. Notice of any meeting of a committee need not be given to any member thereof who shall attend the meeting or who shall waive notice thereof by telegram, radio, cable or other writing. Notice of any adjourned meeting need not be given. Each committee shall keep a record of its proceedings, and report the same to the Board of Directors when required. Meetings of the committees may be held by the members of the committees participating in the same by means of a conference telephone or similar communications equipment by means of which all persons participating in the meeting can hear each other, and participation in a meeting in such manner shall constitute presence in person by all persons so participating. Meetings may also be held in such other manner authorized or permitted by Delaware law. Whenever the laws of the State of Delaware authorize or permit members of the committees to act other than at a meeting, including but not limited to acting through unanimous or other written consents, then such actions shall be as effective as if taken by the committee at a meeting.

Section 3.4 Quorum and Manner of Acting. At each meeting of any committee the presence of a majority but not less than two of its members then in office shall be necessary and sufficient to constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, and the act of a majority of the members present at any meeting at which a quorum is not present at the time and place of any meeting may adjourn the meeting from time to time and until a quorum shall be present. Subject to the foregoing and other provisions of these By-laws and except as otherwise determined by the Board of Directors, each committee may make rules for the conduct of its business. Any determination made in writing and signed by all the members of such committee shall be as effective as if made by such committee at a meeting.

Section 3.5 Resignations. Any member of a committee may resign at any time by giving written notice of such resignation to the Board of Directors, the Chairman of the Board, the Chief Executive Officer, or the President. Unless otherwise specified in such notice, such resignation shall take effect upon receipt thereof by the Board or any such officer.

Section 3.6 Removal. Any member of any committee may be removed at any time by the Board of Directors with or without cause.

Section 3.7 Vacancies. If any vacancy shall occur in any committee by reason of death, resignation, disqualification, removal or otherwise, the remaining members of such committee, though less than a quorum, shall continue to act until such vacancy is filled by the Board of Directors.

Section 3.8 Compensation. Committee members shall receive such reasonable compensation for their services as such, whether in the form of salary or a fixed fee for attendance at meetings, with expenses, if any, as the Board of Directors may from time to time determine. Nothing herein contained shall be construed to preclude any committee member from serving the Corporation in any other capacity and receiving compensation therefor.

ARTICLE X
Indemnification

Section 10.1 Right to Indemnification. Each person who was or is made a party or is threatened to be made a party to or is involved in any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative ("Proceeding"), by reason of the fact that he, or a person of whom he is the legal representative, is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the Corporation or is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation or of a partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, including service with respect to employee benefit plans, whether the basis of such Proceeding is alleged action in an official capacity as a director, officer, employee or agent or in any other capacity while serving as a director, officer, employee or agent, shall be indemnified and held harmless by the Corporation to the fullest extent authorized by the Delaware General Corporation Law, as the same exists or may hereafter be amended, (but, in the case of any such amendment, only to the extent that such amendment permits the Corporation to provide broader indemnification rights than said Law permitted the Corporation to provide prior to such amendment) against all expenses, liability and loss (including attorneys' fees, judgments, fines, ERISA excise taxes or penalties and amounts paid or to be paid in settlement) reasonably incurred or suffered by such person in connection therewith; provided, however, that the Corporation shall indemnify any such person seeking indemnity in connection with a Proceeding (or part thereof) initiated by such person only if the Proceeding (or part thereof) was authorized by the Board of Directors of the Corporation. The right to indemnification conferred in this Section 10.1 shall be a contract right and shall include the right to be paid by the Corporation expenses incurred in defending any such Proceeding in advance of its final disposition; provided, however, that if the Delaware General Corporation Law requires, the payment of such expenses incurred by a director or officer in his capacity as a director or officer (and not in any other capacity in which service was or is rendered by such person while a director or officer, including, without limitation, service to an employee benefit plan) in advance of the final disposition of such Proceeding, shall be made only upon delivery to the Corporation of an undertaking, by or on behalf of such director or officer, to repay all amounts so advanced if it should be determined ultimately that such director or officer is not entitled to be indemnified under this Section or otherwise.

Section 10.2 Non-Exclusivity of Rights. The rights conferred on any person by Section 10.1 shall not be exclusive of any other right which such person may have or hereafter acquire under any statute, provision of the Certificate of Incorporation, by-laws, agreement, vote of stockholders or disinterested directors, or otherwise.

Section 10.3 Insurance. The Corporation may maintain insurance, at its expense, to protect itself and any such director, officer, employee or agent of the Corporation or another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise against any such expense, liability or loss, whether or not the Corporation would have the power to indemnify such person against such expense, liability or loss under the Delaware General Corporation Law.
