(9) TIERING: Is tiering applied? (Explain why tiering was or was not used.) While the regulation itself is limited in scope and does not utilize tiering, the incorporated Manual of Policies and Procedures, consistent with KRS 13A.210, uses tiering when possible to avoid disproportionate impacts by using reasonable criteria. For example, the manual had reduced administrative requirements for small purchase amounts, as opposed to larger purchases where greater oversight is necessary. Additionally, per 13A.210(2), the manual generally aims to provide clarification and eliminate ambiguity regarding provisions of the model procurement code which might otherwise cause confusion and administrative inefficiency for agencies and vendors.
