FINANCE AND ADMINISTRATION CABINET

Department of Revenue

(Amendment)

103 KAR 1:010. Protests.

RELATES TO: KRS 49.220, 49.250, 131.010, 131.030, 131.081, 131.110, and 131.180

STATUTORY AUTHORITY: KRS 131.130

NECESSITY, FUNCTION, AND CONFORMITY: KRS 131.130(1) authorizes the Kentucky Department of Revenue to promulgate administrative regulations for the administration and enforcement of all tax laws of this state. This administrative regulation provides guidance regarding a taxpayer's protest rights and outlines procedures to facilitate the filing, processing, and disposition of a protest.

Section 1. Definition. "Notice" means a letter, memorandum, or other document from the department that:

(1) Notifies the taxpayer that tax has been assessed and is due, or a request for refund has been partially denied or denied in full; and

(2) Explains the taxpayer's right to protest the assessment, refund denial, or refund reduction, and the time period for filing a protest.

Section 2. Protest - Assessments. (1) Taxpayers will be notified of additional tax assessments by mail. Payment including interest from the original due date, in the absence of protest, shall be made within sixty (60) [forty-five (45)] days from the date of the notice informing the taxpayer that tax is owed.
(2) A written protest may be filed by the taxpayer, or other persons representing the taxpayer, against additional assessments. The department may require the taxpayer to furnish a "Declaration of Representative," Form 20A100 if a representative is serving on behalf of the taxpayer. The time period for submitting a supporting statement may be extended as provided in KRS 131.110(1).

(3) A taxpayer or taxpayer representative may submit a written protest and supporting statements to the department by one (1) of the following methods:

(a) Hand delivery to the department at 501 High Street, Frankfort, Kentucky 40601, or a department Taxpayer Service Center location as listed on the department’s Web site;

(b) By the United States postal service or express mail service to the address listed in the notice; or

(c) Electronically to an email address, if provided, listed in the assessment or notice.

(4) When determining if the protest was timely filed, the department shall record the submission as:

(a) The date stamped as received by the department, if hand delivered;

(b) The postmark date from the United States post office, if the postal service is used, but excluding the date from a postage meter;

(c) The delivery confirmation date when received by the department, if an express mail service is used; or

(d) The electronic date and time received, if electronically delivered. If the protest is submitted to the department electronically, the taxpayer shall also mail a copy of the protest and supporting statements to the department at the address listed in the notice.

(5) The department shall acknowledge receipt of the taxpayer’s protest in writing within ninety (90) calendar days from the date received by the department.

(6) Scheduling options for a conference shall be communicated to the taxpayer by the department within forty-five (45) days of the taxpayer’s written request for a conference.

Section 3. Protest - Refund Denials. (1) The department shall send the taxpayer a notice by mail of any denial or partial denial of any refund applied for, including a refund claimed upon any return.

(2) The department shall include with each notice of the denial:

(a) References to the statutes and administrative regulations that are the basis for the denial;

and

(b) The date by which the taxpayer may protest the denial.

(3) If the taxpayer disagrees with the disallowance of any refund, the taxpayer may file a written protest and supporting statements with the department by the methods set forth in Section 2 of this administrative regulation.

(4) If the taxpayer or taxpayer representative has submitted all supporting statements and documentation requested by the department, but has not received a determination regarding the refund request from the department within 180 calendar days from the date the request was submitted, the taxpayer may file a protest on the claim as if the refund has been denied by the department.

Section 4. Protest – Transfer (1) Unless the assessment results from an audit performed by the Office of Field Operations, the department shall attempt to resolve the protest within the taxing area from which the assessment was issued.

(2) If the protest cannot be resolved by the taxing area, the taxing area shall transfer the protest to the Division of Protest Resolution.
(3) A taxpayer may request in writing that a protest be transferred to the Division of Protest Resolution by the methods outlined in Section 2 of this administrative regulation for consideration by the department.

(4) The taxing area shall complete the transfer within forty-five (45) days of receipt of the taxpayer’s written request to transfer the protest to the Division of Protest Resolution.

(5) The Division of Protest Resolution shall acknowledge receipt of the protest in writing to the taxpayer within forty-five (45) days of the transfer. The acknowledgement shall contain:

(a) The name and contact information of the department employee assigned to the taxpayer’s protest; and

(b) The name and contact information of the employee’s direct supervisor.

Section 5. Final Ruling. If the department cannot resolve the protest after transfer to the Division of Protest Resolution, the department shall issue a final ruling to the taxpayer.

Section 6. Failure by the department to meet any of the deadlines imposed by this administrative regulation:

(1) May justify a waiver of penalties; and

(2) Shall not be interpreted to allow a reduction in any tax, interest, or fees assessed by the department.

(1) Provide a brief summary of:
   (a) What this administrative regulation does: This administrative regulation amends 103 KAR 1:010 to conform to changes made in HB 354 of the 2019GA which changed the amount of time a taxpayer has to protest a Notice of Tax Due from the Department of Revenue under KRS 131.110 from 45 days to 60 days.
   (b) The necessity of this administrative regulation: KRS 13A requires that all regulations containing outdated or incorrect information be deemed deficient each December and potentially voided. The amendments made within this administrative regulation are necessary to be compliant with KRS 13A and to provide the most current and up to date information regarding the time period to file a protest with the department for those who may seek guidance from 103 KAR 1:010.
   (c) How this administrative regulation conforms to the content of the authorizing statutes: See (1)(a).
   (d) How this administrative regulation currently assists or will assist in the effective administration of the statutes: The amendment to this administrative regulation will insure that the most up to date and correct information is provided to taxpayers of the Commonwealth.

(2) If this is an amendment to an existing administrative regulation, provide a brief summary of:
   (a) How the amendment will change this existing administrative regulation: See (1)(a).
   (b) The necessity of the amendment to this administrative regulation: See (1)(b).
   (c) How the amendment conforms to the content of the authorizing statutes: See (1)(c).
   (d) How the amendment will assist in the effective administration of the statutes: See (1)(d).

(3) List the type and number of individuals, businesses, organizations, or state and local governments affected by this administrative regulation: Any taxpayer wishing to file a protest of a tax bill received from the department would potentially be impacted by the change made to this administrative regulation.

(4) Provide an analysis of how the entities identified in question (3) will be impacted by either the implementation of this administrative regulation, if new, or by the change, if it is an amendment, including:
   (a) List the actions that each of the regulated entities identified in question (3) will have to take to comply with this administrative regulation or amendment: The only actions required to comply are to file a timely protest within 60 days of the due date on the Notice of Tax Due from the department rather than within 45 days.
   (b) In complying with this administrative regulation or amendment, how much will it cost each of the entities identified in question (3): There are no additional costs associated with these changes.
   (c) As a result of compliance, what benefits will accrue to the entities identified in question (3): They will have 15 additional days to meet the deadline of time to file a protest than they had under the previous provisions of KRS 131.110 and this administrative regulation.

(5) Provide an estimate of how much it will cost to implement this administrative regulation:
   (a) Initially: There are no additional costs associated with this amendment. Any applicable cost will be absorbed by the current department budget.

(b) On a continuing basis: None.

(6) What is the source of the funding to be used for the implementation and enforcement of this administrative regulation: Currently budgeted department funding.

(7) Provide an assessment of whether an increase in fees or funding will be necessary to implement this administrative regulation, if new, or by the change, if it is an amendment: No increase in fees or funding will be necessary to implement this amendment.

(8) State whether or not this administrative regulation establishes any fees or directly or indirectly increases any fees: No.

(9) TIERING: Is tiering applied? Tiering is not applied. The updating of this administrative regulation will impact any taxpayer utilizing the guidance within equally.
