FINANCE AND ADMINISTRATION CABINET

Department of Revenue

(Amendment)

103 KAR 31:090. Tax-paid purchases resold.

RELATES TO: KRS 139.010, 139.200, 139.290, KRS 139.310

STATUTORY AUTHORITY: KRS 131.130[44]

NECESSITY, FUNCTION, AND CONFORMITY: KRS 131.130(1) authorizes the Department of Revenue to promulgate administrative regulations for the administration and enforcement of Kentucky tax laws. This administrative regulation interprets [To interpret] the sales and use tax law as it applies to tax-paid purchases resold.

Section 1. Definition. “Tax-paid purchases resold” means a sales and use tax deduction taken by a retailer on the sales tax return in the amount of the purchase price of property where the retailer:

(1) Sells the property before making any use thereof, other than retention, demonstration, or display while holding it for sale in the regular course of business;

(2) Reports the sale and remits applicable sales and use tax on the sales price of the property;

and

(3) Has previously paid the Kentucky sales or use tax on the purchase price of the property. [A retailer who resells tangible personal property before making any use thereof (other than retention, demonstration, display while holding it for sale in the regular course of business) may take a deduction of the purchase price of the property if, with respect to its purchase, he has reimbursed his vendor for the sales tax or has paid the use tax. If such a deduction is taken by the retailer, no refund or credit will be allowed to his vendor with respect to the sale of the property.)

Section 2. The tax-paid purchases resold deduction described in Section 1 of this administrative regulation may [should-be used in any of the following circumstances:

(1) The retailer, when making the purchase, intends to use the property rather than resell it but later resells it before making any use thereof;

(2) The particular property is not of a kind ordinarily sold or stocked by the retailer and not customarily covered by resale certificates given to his vendors; he is subject of an unusual sale, such as a sale for the accommodation of a customer, employee, etc.

(3) The particular property is generally for the use of the retailer, but a small portion is incidentally resold; or

(4) Through error, sales or use tax is paid by the retailer with respect to the purchase price of property purchased for resale in the regular course of business.
